Fire & Ink III: Cotillion will unite over 500 Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgendered, and Queer writers of African descent, publishers, academics, and lovers of the written and performed word from around the country and the world. Cotillion is a rare and historic event offering a unique opportunity for artists and writers to create and share work, network and develop creative partnerships among peers and supporters across genres, and in publishing and performance. Cotillion will take place in Austin, TX, a city with a large and growing arts and education community. Cotillion's program book will be distributed to all attendees and will serve as resource material for educational, arts and other community organizations after the event. Fire & Ink III: Cotillion provides businesses like yours with the opportunity to both support a historic event with an extraordinary demographic and reach hundreds of consumers of social influence as part of a document that will be referred to for years to come.
